

HAZOP Team Member Online Training

COURSE DESCRIPTION

R4Risk's HAZOP Team Member online live training (i.e. not pre-recorded) is designed to provide participants with a sound understanding of the principles behind HAZOP studies so they can effectively contribute as a member of a HAZOP team. The course will be delivered across one half-day session.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The HAZOP Team Member training is designed for all potential participants of a HAZOP study. This includes engineers and other technical personnel as well as those with safety and project management responsibilities. Attendees may have little or no experience of HAZOP.

COURSE CONTENT

HAZOP Team Member training includes theory as well as participating in a practice HAZOP. The training course includes the following topics:

- HAZOP study principles
- HAZOP terminology and methodology
- Make-up of a HAZOP team
- How to contribute and be an effective HAZOP team member.

For more details, please contact our office.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the completion of the HAZOP Team Member training, trainees will have been provided with the knowledge of the purpose of a HAZOP and the processes involved, enabling them to actively participate and contribute effectively in future HAZOP studies.
